Back to Basics in OMFS

66th CAOMS Annual Conference including the Founders' Memorial Lecture

CAOMS 2019 ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Members and non-members of the Canadian Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (CAOMS) and the Canadian Residents Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (CRAOMS) are invited to submit an abstract for presentation at the CAOMS annual conference in Calgary, Alberta.

Submissions will be accepted by the Scientific Program Committee until Friday, April 5, 2019.

ABSTRACT CONTENT / SELECTION CRITERIA

The theme of the CAOMS 2019 conference is “Back to Basics in OMFS”. Abstract submissions should represent original work on a clinical and/or research topic.

The Scientific Program Committee will select papers from the total submissions, taking into consideration such factors as scientific validity and pertinence, teaching program representation and scientific interest for the profession.

DETAILS FOR SUBMISSION

- Abstracts must be scientific in nature, including research data from a statistically significant number of cases or procedures. Studies of a single case will not be accepted.
- Abstracts must be ready for publication and should not have been previously submitted to another meeting or publication.
- Abstracts are limited to 400 words.
- Selected oral abstracts will be delivered on Friday, May 31, 2019 and allotted nine minutes: seven minutes should be dedicated to lecture and two minutes for questions and answers. Selected oral abstract presenters will be notified of their time slots once all abstracts have been reviewed.
- Upon notification of a successful abstract, all abstract presenters must register and pay for the conference. The CAOMS does not pay conference registration, honoraria, travel costs, accommodation or any other expenses for those whose abstracts are selected.
- You must submit using the form provided by the CAOMS (see page 2 and 3)
