

CAOMS 2022 ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Members and non-members of the Canadian Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (CAOMS) and the Canadian Residents' Association for Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (CRAOMS) are invited to submit an abstract for presentation on July 19, 2022 at the 67th CAOMS Annual Conference in Reykjavik, Iceland.

Submissions will be accepted by the Scientific Program Committee until Monday, May 2, 2022.

ABSTRACT CONTENT / SELECTION CRITERIA

The theme of the CAOMS 2022 conference is "Hot Springs, Cold Facts: Re-connecting in Reykjavik". Abstract submissions should represent original work on a clinical and/or research topic.

The Scientific Program Committee will select papers, taking into consideration such factors as scientific validity and pertinence, teaching program representation and scientific interest for the profession. The abstract presentations will be judged by members of the 2022 Scientific Program Committee and a prize will be awarded.

DETAILS FOR SUBMISSION

- Submission must be made using the 2022 CAOMS Abstract Submission Form (see pages 2 and 3)
- Abstracts must be scientific in nature and include appropriate statistical analyses. Case presentations will not be accepted.
- Abstracts must be ready for publication and should not have been previously submitted to another meeting or publication.
- Abstracts are limited to 400 words.
- Selected oral abstracts will be delivered on Tuesday, July 19, 2022 and allotted nine minutes: seven minutes for presentation and two minutes for questions and answers. Selected oral abstract authors will be notified of their time slots once all abstracts have been reviewed.
- Upon notification of a successful abstract, all abstract presenters must register and pay for the conference. All abstract presenters will be given the Early Bird Registration Rate. The CAOMS does not pay conference registration, honoraria, travel costs, accommodation or any other expenses for those whose abstracts are selected.
