About CAOMS – Canadian Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons

The CAOMS is a non-profit organization serving the needs of hundreds of oral and maxillofacial surgeons across Canada. The CAOMS is designed to support the ongoing requirements of its members and ensure that they are able to maintain excellence in their area of specialty. The CAOMS helps its members to stay connected and remain on the leading edge of their specialty through continuing education and regular meetings, as well as supporting ongoing research, and representing and advocating for the needs of this profession to various interest groups to further advance the profession.

69TH CAOMS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The conference theme is “Optimizing Patient Outcomes from the Office to the O.R.”

The scientific committee members, Drs. James Brady, Clayton Davis, Sean Edwards, and Raymon Grewal, will offer sessions covering various procedures that OMFS deal with on a daily basis. Shorter sessions allowing for plenty of questions will provide lively conversation to keep everyone engaged.

Once again this year, we will present the Founder’s Lecture honouring an OMFS and offer an abstract session so we can hear from the Residents of our Canadian programs.

The program will include a broad range of speakers from various corners of the world, including an afternoon session co-hosted by the Osteo Science Foundation.

Meeting Location and Venue

Charlottetown might be a small city, but it's got all the charm and hospitality that Prince Edward Island is famous for, plus culinary experiences, attractions and activities, and an arts and culture scene that take visitors by surprise—in the best way possible.

Wander along the boardwalk of the postcard-perfect harbour where lobster boats and sailboats cozy up. Enjoy colourful streetscapes, delightful shops, and galleries. Treat your creative spirit with contemporary art installations, traditional music, and world-class theatre. Explore its heritage and history and the pivotal role Charlottetown has played in Canada's history. Get active with a round of golf, a day of kayaking, or a spin on a bike around the city.

Delta Hotels Prince Edward, part of the Marriott Hotels group, is the ideal venue for the conference. With plenty of meeting space, state-of-the-art technology, and a view of the harbour, this centrally located hotel provides the perfect home for the CAOMS.
